Council Connection

Recent Council Actions from November 18 Meeting

- Kent Peterson and Karen Eckman presented the City with a Certificate of Appreciation from the Ramsey Washington Metro Watershed District for the creation of the Commons Pond natural landscape buffer. The natural landscape buffer consists of hundreds of natural plantings adjacent to the Commons Park Pond near the pavilion. This initial project planning and planting was done as an Eagle Scout project and the buffer area is now maintained by a group of community volunteers.
- Approved the 2014 Curbside Recycling Budget in the amount of $529,569. The budget provides for continuation of the city's single sort curbside recycling program and Spring and Fall clean up day events at a cost of less than $4/month.

Citizen of the Year, Caring Youth Award

Williams and Witthauer recognized for outstanding service

Julie B. Williams received the 2013 Shoreview Citizen of the Year Award from Mayor Sandy Martin (pictured right) and the City Council at the annual Volunteer Appreciation event on Nov. 14 held at the Shoreview Community Center. The 2013 Caring Youth Award was presented to Ava Witthauer by Mayor Martin and the Shoreview Human Rights Commission (HRC) at the event as well.
